

PRESS RELEASE - Su Arts e.V.- 18.06.2025

For immediate release and many thanks for support

Internationales MainWeltmusik Festival 2025 – international MainWorldMusic Festival 2025 - Songs without borders unite nations - Together through music: free, equal, connected.

On June 28, 2025, the 11th International „MainWeltmusik“ WorldMusic Festival invites you to the courtyard of the historic Büsing Palais in Offenbach. Outstanding international artists will meet in an open-air setting to celebrate the unifying power of music.

The festival is under the patronage of Dr. Felix Schwenke, Mayor of Offenbach; Timon Gremmels, Hessian Minister for Science and Research, Arts and Culture; Christoph Degen, State Secretary for Culture of the State of Hesse; and Tarek Al-Wazir, Member of the German Bundestag.

Music as a Bridge Between Cultures

The MainWorldMusic Festival sees itself as a cultural platform for exchange, diversity, and understanding. It stands for respectful coexistence and active international friendship – regardless of origin, language, age, or belief. The event pursues a clear goal: music as a means of promoting cohesion, cultural participation, and democratic awareness. The event pursues a clear goal: music as a means of promoting cohesion, cultural participation, and democratic awareness.

The event pursues a clear goal: music as a means of promoting cohesion, cultural participation, and democratic awareness. The city of Offenbach, with its influences from over 160 nations, offers an ideal setting for this - open, lively, and future-oriented. Special thanks go to the numerous partners and funding institutions, without whose commitment the festival would not be possible at this level.

The 2025 Program – Sounds of the World

This year, the festival once again presents a diverse lineup of renowned international artists who combine musical traditions with contemporary expression:

- Alim Qasimov (Azerbaijan) – The multi-award-winning UNESCO Laureate is considered one of the most important voices in world music.
- Barcelona Gipsy Balkan Orchestra (ESP, FRA, SRB, ITA, Balkan) – An energetic ensemble that combines Balkan sounds with Mediterranean musicality.
- Dilek Türkan, Derya Türkan & Mete Aslan (Turkey) – A trio of classical Turkish music with subtle musical dialogue.
- Denise Krammer (Brazil) – The award-winning singer brings Brazilian rhythms, poetry, and emotions to the stage.
- Céline Rudolph AMARÉ (Germany/Brazil) – Jazz, world music, and Brazilian sound art merge into a poetic musical language.
- Dervish of Anatolia (Turkey) – Contemporary Anatolian music with spiritual depth and dynamic stage presence.

- A special highlight is the MainWorldmusic Festival Ensemble under the artistic direction of composer and bass-baritone Hasan Yükselir, who brings together the musicians of the participating acts, Dijle and Vural Güler, into an exclusive, cross-border project. This creates unique musical constellations that can only be experienced live in this setting.

Joint commitment to living diversity the implementation of the festival is made possible through the support of committed institutions, including the Hessian Ministry of Science and Research, Art and Culture, the Kulturfonds Frankfurt RheinMain GmbH, the Dr. Marschner Foundation, the Aventis Foundation, and the Cultural Foundation of the Städtische Sparkasse Offenbach am Main, the Fraport AG, and the OSG Marketing GmbH.

Special thanks go to the City of Offenbach, especially the Office of Public Relations and the Office of Cultural Management, for their long-standing support with professional expertise, organizational strength, and cultural commitment.

Music connects – experience diversity live and outdoors. The MainWorldMusic Festival 2025 cordially invites all music and culture enthusiasts!
